Baltimore County Executive Jim Smith will join the U.S. Green Building Council Maryland to celebrate their move to the area's first LEED platinum certified building.

The guest speaker at the event will be Scot Horst, Senior Vice President, U.S. Green Building Council. Horst has served as chair of USGBC's LEED Steering Committee, the body that has principal responsibility for developing and implementing the LEED rating system. Horst is an author and is widely recognized as one of the key leaders of the sustainable design movement.

Schilling Green, a 106,208-square-foot, three-story, Class A office building, obtained the first Platinum-certified Core and Shell rating - the highest rating - in the Baltimore area from the USGBC. Woodlawn-based Merritt Properties LLC is the developer of Schilling Green.

When:

Tuesday, August 3, 2010
10:00 a.m.

Where:
